PROFILE

I'm a Portuguese fresh graduate with a BSc in Information Technology and I'm eager to learn more as I grow professionally and as a person. My areas of interest go from web/product design all the way to code development of websites and web applications.

EXPERIENCE

Tutor

Freelance 2018 - 2023

- During my academic journey, I was tutoring general Python, Java and Javascript concepts to Uni students.
- During projects season, I was helping them understand e complete the desired goals and during exams season I was teaching the key points of each subject as well as how to solve the exams.
- All in all, I helped my students increase their exams grades by 35% and project grades by 40%.

Design

Freelance 2021 - 2023

- On my last two years in Uni, I decided to design websites for some of the students' projects for them to code.
- I also got involved in a bit of thumbnail design for some academic-purpose videos that some students requested.

Digital Content Creator

Sportinveste Multimédia, Lda 2023 - Now

- My job is to publish content related to the various football competitions in Portugal, Italy and National Teams on VSports and SportTV's social media accounts (Instagram, Facebook, Youtube).
- There's also an anti-piracy component that comes with that job, that I do along side a team.
